

R106 Raymill House

Wiltshire Police has granted permission for aircraft operating from Cotswold Gliding Club to transit restricted area R106.

In response to your request for an exemption to EG R106 restricted Airspace. Please accept this email as permission for Cotswold Gliding Club, to operate (transit) the area listed in the agreement namely EG106.

This is on the understanding that where possible the area will be avoided and an acknowledgement that Mandatory Occurrence Reporting (MOR) action will not be enforced if members transits the area or inadvertently enter the restricted area.

This is valid for one year from date of the original request and I ask that a formal application be submitted each year.

This exemption can be rescinded at any time.
